*Recognition in the Guild Directory

As a young adult, I would be interested in an introduction to opera and a networking group of young adults.

As a new member, I would be interested in meeting other Guild members and learning more about the Guild activities.

The Dallas Opera Guild is the major volunteer force for The Dallas Opera. Will you help?

Adopt-an-Artist – Welcome opera artists and production staff, and offer hospitality, particularly airport transportation. No opera expertise needed. Proof of auto insurance is required.

Guild Events – Join a committee to plan social or educational events. We also prepare lunch for the opera staff on the season opening night.

Guided Notes – Utilize your writing and editing skills.

Opera Insights – This is a lively panel discussion given a week before each opera. The principal artists and production staff offer wonderful insight about the opera, their roles and their lives. They frequently mingle with the Guild at a reception afterwards.

- Assist with folding programs or greeting at Insights.
 Bring an appetizer or wine to the reception afterwards.
 Serve wine at the reception.

Dallas Opera Guild National Vocal Competition – This is a national competition with a world-class panel of judges to showcase the nation's finest young opera singers.

Assist the Guild committee and opera staff in various Vocal Competition preparations.

Volunteer for TDO Events – Volunteer at outreach events like the touring student opera or at the AT&T Stadium simulcast.

Guild Opera Travel – Would you like to receive information about Guild opera trips? Past trips: St. Louis, NYC, Dresden, Prague, Vienna

More Guild Volunteer Opportunities:

- Mailing gatherings     Photography at events
